5. Principles

- 5.1 UCQ recognises that passive support for equality and diversity is not sufficient as inequalities created by indirect discrimination, victimisation, harassment, segregation and stereotyping, affects everyone. Challenging inequality must be the responsibility of all members of the UCQ community.
- 5.2 UCQ is committed to treating all of its staff, students and stakeholders fairly and equitably regardless of a protected characteristic, including age, race or ethnicity, disability, gender, gender preference, sexual orientation, religious beliefs, non-belief, membership of professional associations or trade unions, marital status, family responsibility and socio-economic standing. UCQ will ensure that no unjustifiable requirements or conditions are imposed that could disadvantage individuals on any of the above grounds.
- 5.3 UCQ expresses its opposition to all forms of discrimination and its intention to take proactive action in promoting equality and justice. UCQ is committed to the elimination of unfair discrimination through the adoption of a zero-tolerance principle and to the provision of equality for all, in education, training and employment.
- 5.4 UCQ recognises the influence it has externally with many people and organisations with whom it interacts, and it intends that this influence shall be used to promote equality and diversity. It recognises the concept of institutional racism and is committed to the elimination of the root causes of this concept.
- 5.5 UCQ seeks to create an accessible institution and will take proactive action to create a supportive and relevant learning and working environment in which all have the opportunity to achieve their potential. In order to meet these objectives, UCQ will take positive action including seeking and delivering adequate resources to implement this policy. UCQ will review the equality implications of its policies and procedures and monitor their outcomes.
- 5.6 UCQ will ensure that all procedures treat individuals equitably.

6. Promotion and commitment

- 6.1 UCQ will be proactive in promoting equality through recognising, embracing and valuing difference.
- 6.2 UCQ is committed to fulfilling a wide range of equality objectives to tackle all facets of inequality and discrimination, to create genuine equality of opportunity and foster good relations between people who share a protected characteristic and those who do not.
- 6.3 New staff and students will be made aware of the Equality and Diversity Policy and the behaviour expected of them during induction, through the staff/student handbook and the information published on the virtual learning environment (VLE).
- 6.4 All staff will be required to complete a declaration confirming they have read and understood this policy and agree to work to the expected standards. All staff, including all levels of management, will also undertake regular Equality and Diversity training.

- 6.5 Consideration is given when working with all students on their programme, implementation of which is set out in section 8. Consideration is also given when working with employers on apprenticeship training.
